 Chapter 1 *****

Your individuality. Your personality.
Your emotional needs. Your mentality.

To find the ideal profession, you have to know yourself first. There are activities you are suited for according to your nature, and others you are not. Your ideal occupation should favor the expression of your individuality (Sun) and your personality (Rising Sign), satisfy your emotional needs (Moon) and permit the development of your intellect (Mercury).

YOUR INDIVIDUALITY: Sun in Taurus

You were born under the sign of TAURUS and your ruling planet is Venus, which makes you sensitive, romantic and agreeable in your dealings.

Your Sun sign is FIXED and this impels you to fulfill an organizing function, either in thought or action. Your attitude is firm, persistent, stable and decisive. You have the ability to concentrate profoundly on your projects and to stay firm in your purposes. In spite of this, you will have to cultivate a certain flexibility to avoid obstinacy and selfishness.

Taurus is an EARTH sign and this makes you realistic, practical and concrete. You will have a strong desire to accomplish material goals and need to feel that your career or enterprises permit you to grow a little more each year. You will have to guard against a tendency to be too materialistic or slow to act.

You are not interested in controlling anybody, nor will you permit anyone to run your life. Your quiet style is apt to confuse others. You tend to have an iron will and once you have made a decision, nothing can change your mind. You probably won't argue and don't want to impose your opinions on others, but at the same time will be convinced that things will be going your way.

Although Taurus is a commercial sign and you can perform as a businessman, you also have certain artistic abilities and may get involved in some manual tasks or arts and crafts that could have a therapeutic affect on you.

You were born to put your ideas to practice, to organize, to work, to accomplish and to make your dreams reality. Your mission is to offer stability to your family, to take root, to maintain morals and traditions. You will give a strong and firm hand to those who need it and are likely to become the pillar of your family.

To evolve, your spirit needs to learn to control your stubbornness, inflexibility of your opinions, your materialistic vision of life, the tendency to be so possessive and absorbed in your loved ones and the propensity to seek excessive pleasures. You also will have to overcome physical laziness that will cause you to move very slowly or not to move at all.

YOUR PERSONALITY: Ascendant Pisces

Others see you as a sensitive, intuitive and very obliging person. You always are ready to listen and to offer compassion, sometimes foregoing your own occupations.

You are romantic, idealistic and dreamy. It is hard for you to see things as they really are. You tend to idealize others and are disillusioned most of the time. You have a tendency to evade your problems and to be very disordered in the material area. You have to learn to put order in your surroundings and to realize your goals without requiring so much external help. Because of your great sensitivity, your feelings are hurt very easily and tears may come to your eyes at the drop of a hat. You have an immense emotional world and are very loving. Your powerful intuition gives you the ability to detect the feelings of other people. You are a counselor and psychologist by nature, but have to learn not to load yourself down with others' problems.

The profession you choose will have to stimulate your love for all living beings, your eagerness to help, cure, serve and collaborate. You need to feel that you are useful and that others need you. Avoid mechanical, cold or very materialistic professions.

YOUR EMOTIONAL NEEDS: Moon in Capricorn

You are not very expressive with your emotions, although they are very intense or deep. You are insecure and feel that if you open up too much it will make you vulnerable. Your external image tends to be rather cold or distant. You have a deep inner loneliness that you attempt to fill with your activities and also a tendency to melancholia, depression or social isolation. You will have to overcome your inner repression and develop more confidence in your emotional world without waiting for recognition or approval from others. Avoid judging or criticizing others.

You have a strong sense of responsibility and perform your work very efficiently. You are likely to occupy important positions and to reach social prestige. You view life realistically and are persevering in the pursuit of your objectives. You are very ambitious and know how to assume responsibility. You project organization and leadership ability, and your ideas tend to be very well established and structured. You are cautious with the management of your money and have a great deal of common sense. You can find solutions to your problems because you are practical.

Subconsciously, you have a strong desire to have power and control over your life. In previous lives you may have occupied positions of authority and social prestige. You were accustomed to receiving respect, honor and cooperation from the people who were accompanying you, and you felt that you were in the public eye. This caused you to be concerned about your image and to maintain a life style governed by respectability, luxury or tradition. Because of this, today you feel sure about the respect of the place that you have to occupy socially, but not so sure in your emotional world. In this incarnation you have to learn to combine your sense of power with your feelings. You have to experience life with less preoccupation and more flexibility, and avoid trying to have control of every situation.

The profession you choose will have to satisfy your emotional need to find a solid base, to have the possibility of growth, to reach positions of authority, independence and power. You need to feel proud of the position you occupy and to identify with it. You also have the need to receive recognition, rewards and the possibility of increasing your prestige daily.

YOUR MENTALITY: Mercury in Taurus

Your mind tends to be a bit slow and you come to conclusions only after much thought and inner debates. Your reasoning is very sound, logical and practical, and you may experience difficulty with abstract subjects (e.g. mathematics). You are likely to have very good visual memory and will be skillful with your hands. You have aesthetic tastes and are strongly attracted to arts in general. It is important that you are not pushed or hurried when trying to make a decision, as this will confuse you. You have well-defined and clear purposes, which gives you constancy in regard to your goals. You have a strong tendency to reject new ideas, as you prefer traditional, conservative and classic things. This astrological position is very good for business and management.

Your way of communicating is soft, warm and sparing of words. You are very reserved with respect to your private life. You have to learn to express your thoughts without fear of conflicts.

* Chapter 2 *******

Your abilities and your emotions, inhibitions and strengths.
Hidden talents or challenges, Karma.

The location of the planets in the houses and the relationship between them can increase or decrease their power. Aspects of the Sun are related to our strength and those of the Moon affect the emotional world and are expressed on a subconscious level.

Aspects that affect your INDIVIDUALITY:

Sun in 2nd house:

You have the ability to attract money, but most of your earnings are likely to come through your own effort and initiative. With a very pronounced materialistic sense of life, you are very attracted to possessions that represent status, value and luxuries.

Though money is not likely to be lacking in your life, it is important that you learn to manage it, because it tends to go right through your hands. Many times you may make purchases or unnecessary investments, or incur expenses that you regret later on. You will have to learn to share your possessions and not be dazzled by luxurious things. This position emphasizes your concentration on securities and material things; don't neglect your spiritual security or that of others. Your success depends much on your personal self-evaluation, on your administrative ability and on your relationships to people with power or higher positions.

Sun conjunct Mercury:

You have a powerful mind that will guide you intelligently in your life pursuits. Your ideas are intense and passionate, and you plan your objectives with sufficient forethought and firmness. Not easily influenced, you don't change your mind unless it is your own decision. This confidence in your own ideas will cause you to be successful in your life.

Sun Opposition Neptune:

You have a tendency to underestimate your own worth and your probabilities for success, and give way to your fears and inner insecurities. You have great imagination, a lot of inspiration, and sensibility toward all living beings and can excel in humanitarian projects, but first you have to learn to be more practical, concrete and realistic in your objectives.

You have to learn not to act like a victim and to assume that you choose what you experience. Your self-esteem is likely to be low and it is necessary to increase it first, so that then you can choose your career with assurance.

There is a strong tendency to evasion that could lead to some kind of vice or, alternately, to excessive work. You need to strengthen your spiritual side and to rely on your own resources to solve your problems; nothing will be so bad in reality as it seems to you.

Aspects that affect your EMOTIONS:

Moon in 11th house:

You are likely to do well in organizational work or group activities. You can coordinate and direct or simply find great satisfaction in participating in groups. You tend to have many important friends, especially female friendships, that will be with you all of your life.

Moon Conjunct Saturn:

You are industrious, practical and realistic in your objectives, but tend to feel that life is difficult. You are likely to take on more than your share of responsibilities and because of this, may have many complications when solving your own problems. There is a tendency to emotional inhibitions, insecurity and fear of frustration, which could lead you to limit your ambitions or to doubt yourself.

Moon Opposition Mars:

You are prepared to undertake risky tasks or those that require great physical effort. Your strong will and natural aggressiveness allows you to be in control of every situation. Your profession definitely will have to be dynamic and imply some kind of challenge.

You can be brutally honest, especially when dealing with women. You may easily lose your patience with regard to feminine attitudes and are likely to act very roughly. This astrological aspect can generate rivalries and dislike for women.

HIDDEN TALENTS: Aquarius on 12th house cusp

You tend to neglect your creative abilities and your originality. You are likely to be very dependent and unsure about expressing your opinions, especially when they are contrary to those of others or very fanciful. You have to learn to show your opposition and also your most unusual side of your personality. Totally complying with the rules and regulations could annul a large part of you. You have to develop your creative and artistic ability and channel your inspiration more toward things that interest you without waiting for approval from others.

You could be drawn into serious problems due to the negative influence or dishonesty of some friend. You will have to avoid participating in very closed groups, political parties or groups that show fanaticism in their ideas, because later on you could find yourself committed to them and unable to avoid them.

Jupiter in 12th house:

Your wasted talent is your ability to act, entertain or amuse others. You also have a great aptitude for justice, but are not likely to use it professionally. It is necessary for you to feel needed by others, as you are very dependent on the reactions of others. This position offers a general protection for you, though you will have to learn to be more orderly, especially with papers and with legal aspects. Your great compassion makes you suited for professions in medicine or social work.

* Chapter 3 *******
Expansion (Jupiter) and retraction (Saturn).
To give and to receive.

EXPANSION: Jupiter in Aquarius

Your sense of expansion manifests largely through the world of ideas. You are very imaginative and creative, and a large part of your growth and future success depends on your confidence in your own creations. You are not egotistical and are always interested in your friends or groups. You have a very distinctive manner and in general are resistant to traditions or responsibilities, which could lead you to become revolutionary and intolerant. You are very idealistic and always interested in everything that affects your society and the majority. You make no racial, class or religious distinctions.

Jupiter in 12th house:

You are very sensitive, hospitable and like to give secretly. You have to be needed and are very dependent on other people's reactions to you. This position brings a general protection for you, although you will have to learn to be more orderly, especially with papers and the legal aspects of your life. Because of your great empathy, you would be good in the fields of medicine or social work. Your material growth is bound to the merit of the ideas you may have in your mind.

Jupiter Conjunct Saturn:

You are very disciplined and a bit rigid. Although life seems hard to you and with constant struggles, you have a clear and defined purpose of what you want to achieve. Poise and hard work are combined in your personality. You have business as well as political ability. You probably received orthodox religious training.

Your sense of expansion can be limited by your belief of hard reality. Try to develop thoughts that connect you with the abundance of the universe so that you can achieve your goals more easily and rapidly. Resignation to sacrifice and thoughts of struggle can be rooted deep inside you; from today on affirm that all you need comes to you without effort and at the right time.

Jupiter Square Neptune:

You are a bit careless and prone to legal or financial problems. You tend to live in a fantasy world where you evade reality, especially problems. It is important that you learn to eliminate fears and replace the negative thoughts with additional positive ones, and overcome the inertia that holds back the dynamic energy you have.

RETRACTION: Saturn in Capricorn

The inhibition principle affects your personal freedom and the possibility of taking life a bit more lightly. You are ambitious for power, prestige and authority. You are persistent, calculating, careful, practical and a good organizer. You may appear cold and austere because you surround yourself with an aura of dignity. You accept orders from your superior, but also expect the same from your underlings. You are willing to work hard to achieve your goals. You will have to develop a sense of humor and become more flexible, because you tend to take everything too seriously. You may also be selfish, dictatorial and lonely.

Saturn in 11th house:

You may have many older friends for whom you feel a great sense of responsibility. You are very reserved, and may find it difficult to be with groups of people or hard to get close to anyone. For that reason you will have few friends, but will be very loyal to them throughout your life. It is important that you learn to rely on your desires and longings, and to work toward achieving them, because you could develop feelings of low self-worth. Your greatest frustration will be that of not being able to connect and relate well to people your own age. You may also have negative thoughts about the possibility of achieving your own goals.

Saturn Conjunction Moon:

You don't seem to expect emotional fulfillment from your work, but put your great sense of responsibility first. You need to learn to express your feelings, pleasures and desires more freely, and develop more positive thoughts about your professional achievements. You are inclined to associate emotions with weakness and because of this, you tend to contain yourself. Remember that sociableness is one of the characteristics of successful people.

Saturn Opposition Mars:

You alternate between aggression and apathy. You may also be selfish, which could hinder your relationship with others. You will have to learn to become flexible and to express your desires more smoothly. In spite of your great energy, you can't seem to direct it in an orderly fashion. You could have inner inhibitions that don't allow you to express your dissatisfactions and cause you to harbor resentments for a long time. You are likely to have strong disagreements with your superiors or other persons in authority, and the relationship between you tends to be very tense.

Success in life depends to a great extent on the balance between giving and receiving, expanding and retracting. Even dwelling on the one and only failure you may have had is like not attempting anything.

 Chapter 4 *****

Finances, source of income.

Work in relation to your employment.

Described below are some possible sources of income. They may coincide, or not relate at all to your professional vocation.

FINANCES: Aries on 2nd house cusp

Your own ideas and initiative will enable you to make money, but first you will have to learn to use your energy more efficiently. You have a tendency to squander or to spend money impulsively. Because of this, you are likely to have times of tension and financial headaches. You may also run into financial problems by helping others, by your generosity and the tendency not to weigh your expenses. You are protective by nature and don't think of the consequences at the time of giving.

You could easily earn money offering some type of service, occupying a position of authority or conducting your own business.

Sun in 2nd house:

You have many ambitions and money is likely to be the main objective of your life. This position promises big earnings, but you could also incur expenses of the same or greater proportion. You earn money through your own authority, directing others, occupying political or high positions, or in activities related to the world of men.

Mercury in 2nd house:

You are oriented toward the world of business, but you could also do well in writing, teaching, traveling or working in fields of communication such as radio, newspaper, television, or advertising. You may have more than one occupation. It is imperative for you to reach a good academic and cultural level, because your income depends to a large extent on the utilization of your intelligence.

Ruler of 2nd house in 5th house:

Your income is related to creative endeavors, publications, entertainment, sports or arts, investments that imply certain risk or speculation, education or children. You are likely to earn money through some pursuit that will offer satisfaction and pleasure.

Earning money is in direct relationship to our self-esteem. If we consider ourselves valuable, money flows and comes into our lives. Work done with love and pleasure doesn't weigh us down and offers a better profit.

WORK IN RELATION TO YOUR EMPLOYMENT: Leo on 6th house cusp

Your work in relationship to your employment will be expressed through your creativity and great enthusiasm about your work. You are ambitious and want to progress, but are likely to seek approval and recognition from your superiors, which could bring disillusion if you don't receive it. You tend to impose your opinions and ideas on others, which could lead to some tension with your co-workers, if you don't have a leading position.

Uranus in 6th house:

You are very nervous and rebel working for others. You need to feel free expressing your ideas and creativity, and a non-routine job, otherwise you will resign and easily change jobs. Because of your unconventional attitude, you are likely to be misunderstood or criticized by your superiors and co-workers. With this placement you tend to perform better working for yourself than for others.

Pluto in 6th house:

You have a lot of energy, enthusiasm and ability to face any problems in your work area. You have leadership ability and may have a position of authority. You tend to impose your ideas on others and achieve your objectives through manipulation. This placement can generate strong rivalries or fights with superiors or co-workers. Avoid violence and learn to work with more patience and flexibility.

* Chapter 5 *******

Your creativity and recreational activities.
Other skills and hobbies.

Hobbies are also part of our personality and through them, we express to a great extent our creative ability. It is important to enjoy our leisure activities and to complement them with our work or profession to reach greater balance. In our culture, we tend to place importance only on that which brings us money, thereby neglecting the expression of important parts of our personality.

YOUR CREATIVITY: Cancer on 5th house cusp

Your favorite recreational activities will be those that bring you in touch with nature. You enjoy peaceful activities, a gentle or intimate retreat. Your pastimes may include: animal breeding, gardening, cooking etc. If you choose a sport, it will have to be peaceful such as boating or playing golf. You also enjoy working in your household. Some of your pastimes could be: sports in general, gymnastics, mechanics, automobiles, repairing metallic objects, collecting weapons, shooting, taxidermy, camping, rock music etc.

 Chapter 6 *****

Your vocation, profession, probability of success and social recognition.

Sagittarius-Capricorn MC (15 to 30 degrees Sagittarius)

Your destiny is associated with the earth, the country, the trees and the plants. Beyond your idealistic love of the earth, you have a desire to possess it and to cultivate it. If you don't have your own land, you surely will be working at an occupation related to agriculture. You could suffer a lot working in an office or any place but the outdoors. You prefer a humble job, but with the possibility of being outside and free. You have great ability to work with wood and clay. The conventions of society may lead you into administrative or clerical jobs, which will make you feel frustrated. You will have to experience some disappointing job situations in order to define your ambitions and preferences more clearly. Success will come with maturity, thus, your youth is a time of constant search, but will be very rich in experience.

Your career choice could be one of the following professions, or a combination of some of them: agricultural engineer, geologist, carpenter, craftsperson, ceramics, animal breeder, veterinarian, furniture designer, or any other activity which could put you in touch with nature.
